Activities/Camping:

October Campout Review: Killbuck District Fall Camporee. The highlights were: Free time, playing in the fire. We only went for the day as Mr. Livingston had other obligations on Friday. Only five boys and two leaders went down for the day. The program was a very light on structure, but the boys enjoyed the day to just goof off

November Campout will be at Camp Pee Wee. We will be practicing scout skills that might be handy at Klondike, hiking, and playing outdoor games. This is the first campout that is eligible for the Polar Bear award for this year.

December Campout is the traditional Christmas Campout at Killbuck Valley Sportsman's Club. More info will be sent home later, but you can start thinking about your home-made ornament design to decorate our Christmas tree.
